Granite Manufacturers in Conference-Judgment for Plaintiff in Miller-Senior Suit-Tigers Elect Officers -Saloons on Rhode Island Side Must Close New Year's.

Beginning with the new year, the provision of the factory inspection law which prohibits children under 15 at itser; Robert A. Collins, royal secyears of age working in factories, manufacturing or business establishments, unless they can read at sight and write legibly simple sentences in English, goes into effect. This restriction will not affect children who are now working and who have certificates under the former law, but no child can secure work efter January 1, according to the law, unless that child can perform satisfactorily the specified tests in English.

Certificates are to be issued under of the town where the child lives, and each certificate will specify the name of the child, date and place of birth, height, color of eyes and hair, complexion, name and place of residence of persons having control of the child. The certificate will also specify that the child has completed 14 years of age, is able to read and write legibly simple sentences in the English language, and that there is reason to believe that the child is healthy and physically able to perform the intended work.

George Doland Webb of Worcester, who became wealthy in the granite business, and who fell in a faint from a railroad train Wednesday and was killed, was known to Westerly granite manufacturers and to some of the granite workers. He was born in Barre, Vt., 57 years ago, and when a young man started in the granite business in that place. In 1873 he began business on a smell scale and in 1873 he opened a quarry on Millstone Hill. He gradually branched out and became owner of granite quarries in Fitzwilliam and Mariboro, N. H., and at Milford, Mass. He organized the Webb Granite and Construction company in 1891, and was its president and manager.

The Westerly branch of the New England Granite Manufacturers' asso-ciation held a meeting in the Dixon house Friday evening to consider some of the details in the new bill of prices presented by the granits workers, in which a material increase in pay is demanded when the present three years agreement expires on the last day of February.

The suit of William F. Miller and others against Percy A. Senior, an ejectment case, to recover possession of a tenement at 106 Canal street, was tried before Judge Oliver H. Williams in the Third district court Friday, Dr. Senior stated that his wife was III with pacumonia and could not be removed at present without imperiting her life. He said he would surrouter the tenement pascefully when Mrs. the tenement peacefully when Mrs.
Senfor was sufficiently recovered.
Judgment for possession and costs was rendered for plaintiff. This was the only case tried.
The other cases on the docket, criminal and civil, were continued.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
